

Papur 6 - Dyfyniadau Defnyddiol

“Credaf fod y Cynulliad wedi arddangos ei fod yn barod i gymryd y cam nesaf.”

Rhodri Morgan AC

“Mae'r system bresennol yn gwneud hi'n anodd i bobl gyffredin i ddeall neu gymryd rhan yn nhrefn lywodraethol Cymru. Byddai pwerau deddfu addas yn gwneud hi'n glir pwy sydd â'r cyfrifoldeb ac yn dileu'r gwastraffu amser a “ping-pong” rhwng Cymru a San Steffan.”

Katie-Jo Luxton, Ymgyrchwr dros yr Amgylchedd

“Mae pobl Cymru wedi derbyn datganoli ... Ymddengys fod cryn archwaeth am fwy o ddatganoli, gyda chefnogaeth gadarn o blaid pwerau deddfu sylfaenol”

Adroddiad Confensiwn Cymru Gyfan (para. 5.6.1)

“Byddai trosglwyddo pwerau deddfu sylfaenol i'r Cynulliad yn cryfhau democratiaeth Cymraeg, ac yn rhoi system lywodraethu gryf a chadarn i ni. Gallwn wedyn barhau i fynd i'r afael â gwir anghenion pobl a chymunedau Cymru wrth ddatblygu polisïau ymarferol sydd yn nodedig o Gymru, a'u gweithredu mewn modd effeithiol, heb rwystredigaethau'r system gymhleth a llesteiriol o drosglwyddo pwerau.”

Dr Barry Morgan, Archesgob Cymru a Chadeirydd Cymru Yfory

“Byddai Senedd gyda phwerau deddfu ei hun yn codi statws Cymru ar y llwyfan chwaraeon rhyngwladol.”

David Davies, Nofiwyr Olympaidd

“Mae unrhyw wlad sy'n tyfu mewn statws angen pwerau deddfu ei hun.”

Tyrone O'Sullivan, Glofa'r Tŵr

Paper 6 - Useful Quotations

"I believe that the Assembly has demonstrated it is ready to take the next step."

Rhodri Morgan AM

"The current arrangements make it very difficult for ordinary people to understand and participate in the governance of Wales. Proper law-making powers would make it clear where the responsibility lies and cut out the time wasting 'ping-pong' between Wales and Westminster."

Katie-Jo Luxton, Environmental Campaigner

"The people of Wales have accepted devolution...There appears to be a substantial appetite for increased devolution, with solid support for primary law-making powers."

The All-Wales Convention Report (para. 5.6.1)

"Granting primary law-making powers to the Assembly would strengthen Welsh democracy and give us a stable and effective system of government. We need to get on with addressing the needs of the people and communities of Wales by developing practical and distinctively Welsh policies and deliver them effectively, free from the constraints of a complex and frustrating process of transferring powers".

Dr Barry Morgan, Archbishop of Wales and Chair of Cymru Yfory

"Having an Assembly with proper law-making powers would increase Wales' sporting stature on the world stage."

David Davies, Olympic Swimmer

"Any country that is growing in stature needs to have its own law-making powers."

Tyrone O'Sullivan, Tower Colliery
